INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS OF P-TA

More than 70 Rochester Parent-Teacher members and guests attended the installation of new officers held at the Rochester Memorial School auditorium. Guest speaker was the Rev. Francis J. Greene of SS Martha and Mary Church serving Lakeville and Rochester. The installing officer was Mrs. Philip F. Fortin, district 2 director, from New Bedford.

The business meeting and installation was preceded by a catered dinner. Special guests were Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Regan, Mrs. Gilbert D. Bristol, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blasdale, Mrs. Anne Gonsalves, the Rev. Greene and Mrs. Fortin.

The Rev. Greene noted he was most happy to speak to a group that was "united in the love of children and interest of education". Continuing, the guest speaker noted that education is everyone's business regardless whether the person has children or not. The Rev. Greene touched briefly on the campaign that is being waged by P-TAS on pornography. He noted that many a parent was stunned and amazed at what some comic books contained.

Noting that the Rochester P-TA had the opportunity to do great work here for the children in town the Rev. Greene concluded "a child does not need a critic but a model". The guest speaker noted strong influences in a child's life are his mother, father and teacher.

Mrs. Fortin, in her opening talk, noted that P-TA work agreed with everything the Rev. Greene said because that was the only way

"Fruitful maturity" could be reached. She cited that parents and teachers are "guiding stars" to all children.

Mrs. Fortin said that all P-TA material is time tested and tried and the media all parent-teacher groups should use as a guide.

Mrs. Fortin commented on the growth of the Rochester unit which now has a membership of 110 members. She noted this was possible through diligent work of the outgoing president, Mrs. Joseph A. Chamberlain, the executive board and members. She cited the projects of the association which included purchasing books for the school library, donation to school plaque, educational games for use during inclement weather and parties for the school children. These, Mrs. Fortin noted, were all worthy projects and were a credit to the Rochester P-TA.

Mrs. Fortin mentioned the stimulating programs held throughout the year. She stressed the point that good programs are a vital part of P-TA meetings.

Continuing, Mrs. Fortin commented on the "human quotient" and said in many organizations there is apt to be strife because of personalities. She emphasized the point that members should lay aside petty grievances, not spread unfounded rumors, and work for the benefit of the children. In conclusion, Mrs. Fortin cited that the home and school were strong bridges, and should join forces and work for the benefit of the children.

Mrs. Fortin thanked the outgoing officers for a "job well done", and included were Mrs. Chamberlain, president; Mrs. Ralph Walker, vice-president; Mrs. Harry A. Brown, Jr., second vice-president; Mrs. Edward Swanson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Charles Tuttle, treasurer and Mrs. Nelson West, recording secretary.

All incoming officers were presented carnation corsages. Installed for the 1960-61 season were Mrs. Walker, president; Mrs. Brown, second vice president; Mrs. Walter Pierce, secretary; Mrs. Logan Doane, treasur-

Mrs. Fortin presented Mrs. Chamberlain with a Parent-Teachers past presidents' pin.

During the business meeting, preceding the program, Mrs. Chamberlain appointed Mrs. Lloyd Vaughan, Mrs. Donald Jenkins and Mrs. Albie Riley to serve on the committee for the teachers' reception in September. Each year the Rochester Grange, Rochester Woman's Club and Rochester P-TA hold a reception for the staff of Rochester Memorial School with each organization rotating as host. Rochester Grange will serve as host this fall.

In conclusion, Mrs. Chamberlain thanked the executive board and members for the fine cooperation accorded her the last two years and noted only through this cooperation was the "association able to work effectively for the benefit of the children". She cited the fine work done by Mrs. Robert Zora, membership chairman; Mrs. Edmund Arruda, historian; Mrs. Lloyd Vaughan, refreshment chairman, and all other standing committee chairman.

In turning over the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. Chamberlain noted it was "with pleasure I turn over the gavel to a capable and efficient incoming president, Mrs. Walker".

Mrs. Walker, in accepting the gavel, noted she hoped to continue the good work accomplished by the Rochester P-TA. This was the last meeting of the season with the next meeting to be held in the fall, October 17th, at the Rochester Memorial School.
